

Artist Bio – Meghan Cheng

Meghan Cheng is a violinist based in Toronto, Ontario. She received her MFA (Performance) from York University and her BMUS (Performance) from Berklee College of Music. Throughout her music education, she has studied with wonderful teachers, such as Michael Schulte, Matt Glaser, and Grace Hong.

Cheng has performed and recorded for orchestras, theatre productions, bands, and movie soundtracks. She also performs and creates audio visual installations for live performances, galleries and public spaces. These cultural events include Nuit Blanche, InterAccess, ArtworxTO, Gallery 345, VectorFest, Light Up the Square Mississauga, Lumiere at Ontario Place and more. She has collaborated with artists such as Juno nominated William Carn, Thin Edge New Music Collective, Barbra Lica and Abigail Richardson-Schulte. Cheng has been an artist in residence at the Banff Centre for the Arts (2017), ONCulture, WhyNot Theatre's ThisGen Fellowship and STEPS Create Space.

Cheng teaches privately through her own studio.